In reading “Because My Father Always Said...” I felt very connected through my experiences with my father and Hendrix. The narrator seemed to have a constant desire to foster and maintain a bond with his father, such as when he stated “I was born a goofy reservation mixed drink, and my father needed me just as much as he needed every other kind of drink” (27).

Verse 42. - And I knew that thou hearest me always, but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst send me. This great utterance declares all the intimate relation which subsists between the Father of all and the Son in Jesus. A continuous absolute communion is ever going on between heaven and earth in the heart of Jesus.
