The Commercial Pilot checkride involves an oral exam followed by the flight portion. The oral portion will take about two hours, the flight about an hour and a half or so. The total time to schedule for this checkride is approximately 4 hours. Your flight instructor (CFI) will train and cover everything needed to pass the checkride.

Commercial Pilot Exam - Pilot Check Ride

IMO because of the way the CFI checkride is conducted, it should automatically qualify for a flight review. It goes way above and beyond the level of detail & time of the 2-hour minimum flight review. It includes a (long!) discussion of regulations plus lots of maneuvers. It requires a high level of knowledge.

CFI Checkride as Flight Review | Pilots of America

IFR flying involves learning to fly the airplane solely by reference to instruments and comply with specific procedures within the air traffic control system. Without visual references to the ground, horizon, and other landmarks, you will be able to fly through clouds, rain, fog, etc., all of which restrict visibility.
