Stephen King's The Body ch 17-

Besides Charles Dickens and Ruth Hogan, Stephen King is one of the few authors I admire who has always been able to stir so many different emotions in me in a single book. Any other author could have written the simple story of 4 adolescents, who decide to embark on a journey to see the body of another youth, who has been killed by a train.

Stephen King wrote this book based on a fictional book in his Dark Tower series. But you don't have to be a Dark Tower fan to find value in it. To the constant readers, though, it's a definite must-have. I will admit, the pictures are a little off — a little Stephen King — for a picture book. But my toddler hasn't noticed this at all.
