"Free as a Bird" is a song originally written and recorded in 1977 as a home demo by John Lennon, formerly of the Beatles. In 1995, 25 years after their break-up and 15 years after Lennon was murdered, the band released a studio version incorporating contributions from his surviving bandmates Paul McCartney, George

As free as a bird ? Jill Tait.
I am floating thru the sky in a beautiful bubble, feeling as free as a bird well away from any trouble..and as I look down to the earth below, I watch the watercourse of the ocean ebb and flow..

Meditation. As we go through life, it can feel as though something is holding us down and not letting us move forward. The stress of life wraps around our soul and we lose touch with ourselves, feeling like we can ' t seem to climb above the noise. This meditation is a chance to break free and become emotionally strong.

‘ Free As A Bird ’ was the first new recording released by The Beatles since ‘ The Long And Winding Road ’ in 1970. It received mixed reviews, with many commentators judging it a pale imitation of their 1960s work. In the UK, the single sold 120,000 copies in its first week, entering the UK Singles Chart at number two.
