Most Kansas springs are gravity springs, where water flows to the surface by the action of gravity, as at contact springs. However, in a few of the state's springs, water is forced to the surface by artesian pressure. Under artesian conditions, the pressure in an artesian aquifer is greater than the pressure at the land surface.

4 reviews of Minor League Pub and Grill "Let me start by saying that the 4 stars are because of 2 things: the flavor/quality of the burger and the young lady- Elizabeth- working super hard behind the bar and waiting tables. The atmosphere is sort of like a pub mixed with a tiny sports bar, located in a tiny strip mall. If they ever get really busy, you would not be able to get in there.

33 reviews of The Grove Pub & Grill "I would like to say that I'm a nachos enthusiast and these were the best I've had in awhile. We had a half order of the pulled pork nachos they were amazing. The chips seemed as if they were homemade, if they weren't they were extremely fresh. The chicken fajita wrap had a ton of flavor and the sweet potatoes waffle fries topped the cake.!
